

THE ONE BARREL AT A TIME CO-OP

Caroljean Feinstein

Caroljean has been teaching art to children and adults for over 10 years. She teaches acrylic painting, privately and at Michael's Craft stores. She has also taught classes in "Flower Pounding," an ancient Cherokee art. Caroljean received her B.F.A. at Montclair State University in Illustration and Graphics. She graduated Magna Cum Laud from Fashion Institute of Technology, in Textile Design. Carol's textile designs have appeared in: "Woman's Day Magazine," "Talbot's," "Units," "Wenzel Tile Company" and have sold throughout the country, including at Princeton's June Fete.

Caroljean's rain barrel is called "METAMOPHOUS." It illustrates a woman slowly turning into a butterfly. It depicts life, always changing.
