

THE ONE BARREL AT A TIME CO-OP

Helen Haniffy

Helen Haniffy was born in Trenton, New Jersey in 1974 and has enjoyed drawing and painting since she was a child. Raised in Mt. Holly, she was given an opportunity while in high school to attend a summer scholarship program at Moore College of Art where she experimented with ceramics. This experience encouraged her to continue to pursue her love of art. Primarily self taught, pencil drawing and acrylic painting remain her passion. She has added the pen-and-ink style of drawing to her repertoire and has completed drawings of several colleges and universities in the United States. She currently resides in Mercer County with her husband and three children. Helen's artwork can be seen online at www.helensthings.com.

Helen's art work on her barrel is a reflection of everything her family loves about the beach.
